

THE YANKLE CHRONICLE

February 2004

Published Monthly

Issue 5

What's In This Issue

Historical Families Highlight.....pg. 1

Featured Family Highlight.....pg. 2

Kidz Spot.....pg. 2

Where Are We Now Indicator.....pg. 1

The Yankle Chronicle

is published monthly as a medium by which to share information with all those who are the descendants of Frederick and Henrietta Yankle.

The photos included in the Yankle Chronicle are from the Yankle Family Archives currently being maintained by Bob Yankle. If you have historical family photos, please share them by mailing a copy to:

Bob Yankle
914 S. Ridge Rd.
Burlington, NC 27217

Fourth Generation—oldest great-grandsons

Robert Palmer Yankle was born April 16, 1922, in Flint, Michigan, the oldest son of Harold and Marian (Palmer) Yankle. He was the first of the Fourth Generation of Yankles, all of whom still lived in the state of Michigan. It was this generation of Yankles, however, who would first move to other states. Bob grew up in the Civic Park area of Flint and graduated from Flint Northern High School in 1940.

Very soon after graduation, Bob was inducted into the Army and saw service during WWII. He served in Northern Africa, Sicily, and Italy.

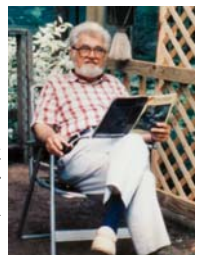

Shortly after the war ended, Bob met and married Evelyn Laurayne Holler, who lived in Flint, Mi. They had 4 children, Bob, Svona, Kathryn, and Glenn Yankle and lived in Flint, Michigan until he took early retirement from A.C. Sparkplug and moved to Interlochen, Michigan in 1977.

Bob was actively involved in the Boy Scouts of America, serving as Scoutmaster of Troop 280, and as an active member of a number of Tall Pine Council planning committees. He was a natural born leader and planner. This desire to be actively engaged in community affairs carried through to his retirement as well.

He took leading roles serving at Redeemer Lutheran Church, Golden Fellowship, the Commission on Aging, and the Interlochen Public Library.

Bob enjoyed gardening and he and Evelyn had the most beautifully landscaped gardens in their neighborhood. Only months after his 50th Wedding Anniversary, Bob died of esophageal cancer, exactly 2 weeks shy of his 75th birthday.

Marlowe Allan Yankle was born February 8, 1926, in Owosso Michigan, the only child of Arthur and Frances Yankle. His parents would later adopt his cousin, Beryl, so that he grew up with an adopted sister.

Marlowe moved with his family throughout the state of Michigan as his father pursued several divergent careers. At one point, Marlowe became the manager of a Family drive-in restaurant in Otsego Michigan.

During the Korean conflict in the 1950s, Marlowe served in the Merchant Marine. Upon the completion of his tour of duty, he settled in Mobile, Alabama, working for the Civil Service at Berkley Field as a facility supervisor. There, he met Lillian "Tinker" Muntz and conducted a whirl-wind romance. They met in June and were married in August of 1964. Marlowe had been married twice before, but had never had any children with his former spouses. That changed.

Traci Renee and Marlowe Allan Yankle II were born in March, 1967 and April, 1970, respectively. Traci remembers that her continued on page 2.

Where Are We Now ???

After Michigan, North Carolina houses the most Yankles (8), barely edging out the state of California by one Family member

Pilot Mountain, a well-known NC landmark, is about an hour drive from the Yankle brothers, Bob and Glenn

continued from pg. 1
 Historical Family Highlights

Dad liked to travel a lot in a mobile home, visiting up and down the east coast, California, Michigan and Florida. They remained very close with Beryl, who had married Robert Quarry, and their children; he visited Danny Yankle, and was especially fond of visiting Barney and Helen Yankle who had settled in Florida. Barney was like a second father to him after he'd lost his father at a relatively young age (46).

Lillian is a championship bowler, loves to play cards and other games, and spend time with her grandchildren. She currently lives in Daphne, Alabama.

Marlowe suffered a severe accident which caused trauma to his head and required that he have both kneecaps replaced. Later, he blamed this accident as the root-cause for an incidence of Parkinson's Disease, which finally took him in November of 2000.

Our Featured Family

Susan Margaret Yankle is the second child and youngest daughter of Daniel and Helene Yankle, granddaughter of Barney Yankle, great-granddaughter of John Ezra Yankle and great, great granddaughter of Frederick and Henrietta Yankle. She was born Sep. 29, 1960, the middle child between her older sister, Mary K. and younger brother, Daniel A.M. Yankle.

As a young girl in a military family, Susan moved with her family every time her father received new orders while serving in the U.S. Air Force. At various times, she has lived in Panama City, FL., Dayton, OH., Nevada, CA., Alamogordo, NM., Oahu, HI., and Apple Valley, CA. The family finally settled down in Apple Valley, and it was from here that she graduated from High School in 1978. Thereafter, Susan attended California State at San Bernardino and received a B.A. in English in 1995. She put the degree to good use as she now teaches 4th grade at an Apple Valley elementary school.

Susan bought a 1968 house on Myalon street in Apple Valley, and lives there with her two dachshunds, Fifi and Missy. She has a swimming pool in the back yard, where she engages in water aerobics from time to time. When she has the time, Susan likes to exercise, do needlepoint (especially while watching a good football game), and read - fiction, Natural Science, and Educational books. We weren't kidding about the football games: Susan picked up the habit of watching football several boyfriends ago, and hasn't lost interest yet. She especially likes the Raiders, Green Bay, and the Broncos when John Elway was still there. By the way - Susan is still eligible, but she's holding out for Mr. Right.

Susan and Bob Yankle have talked about collaborating to write the Family History in a narrative format.

These are family!

Kidz Spotlight Kidz Spotlight

Men in uniform: throughout the years, a number of Yankle men have served their country as members of the Armed forces. In addition, Marlowe Allan Yankle Sr. served as a Merchant Marine during the Korean conflict, and Daniel M. Yankle currently works for the airlines which is structured much like the Military.

Harold R. Yankle - U.S. Army, WWI

Robert P. Yankle - U.S. Army, WWII

Richard H. Yankle - U.S. Army, WWII

Daniel R. Yankle, - U.S. Air Force, Viet Nam, Retired

Robert P. Yankle II - U.S. Navy, Retired

Glenn P. Yankle - U.S. Navy

Daniel M. Yankle, Pilot

GMSA Shaphan I. Yankle - U.S. Navy, currently on active duty