Fifth Generation Yankles- Southeast(1) and West(2)

Cathy Elaine (Yankle, Sirois) Roberts was born June 23rd 1949, the second daughter of Richard and Sybil (Renfro) Yankle. Although she was born in Flint, Michigan, Cathy has probably visited more states in the union than any other Yankle family member. She's never visited the state of Florida, but that's the only one in the lower 48 that she hasn't.

Cathy has been married twice: once, to Walter Sirois, with whom she had a son, Michael Scott Sirois. Michael was born in 1967 in Oakland, California. Cathy later married Ken Roberts, a truck driver, who was the father of Donna Roberts. Donna was born in 1970 in Sacramento, California. Ken adopted Michael, so you may meet him as Michael Roberts. It was while married to Ken that Cathy did so much traveling across the United States. They moved a lot too, primarily in western states. This was part of a pattern, as Sybil would often move between cities in California on short notice when Cathy was still a young girl.

Cathy currently lives with her mother in Fallon, Nevada, where she works under contract for Lockheed Martin at the Naval Air Station Technical Training Ranges. These ranges are desert bombing sites for Navy pilot war tactics.

Cathy has earned 37 credit hours of college courses at Nevada Western, mainly in Business Administration. She also does gardening, reads a lot, and goes camping in remote locations. Cathy has been known to whip up a meal for anywhere from 20 to 25 people involved in her campfire program.

Cathy became a grandmother in 2003 when a baby girl, Savana was born to Donna and Mark Manha. Another one is on the way!

Glenn Paul Yankle is the youngest son of Robert and Evelyn Yankle. He was born in Flint, Michigan on April 9th, 1957. As a young boy, Glenn followed in the tradition of his father and brother by joining the Boy Scouts.

Upon graduation from Flint Northwestern High School, Glenn joined the U.S. Navy. His brother Bob had just been commissioned as an Ensign in the Navy, and sat in the reviewing stand as Glenn's company "passed in review". Later, Glenn attended the Navy's technical school for Electronic Warfare in Pensacola, Florida. He went on to attain the rank of EW2.

Upon his honorable discharge from the Navy, Glenn attended Discipleship Training School in Lindale, Texas, where he met his future wife, Tanda Gail TENNENT. They were married on March 3rd, 1983, in Interlochen, Michigan. For a while, they were involved in the YWAM movement (Youth With A Mission). Then, on Christmas Day, 1983, their first son, Shaphan was born. Two more boys were to follow, Simeon in 1987, and Ethan in 1995.

Tanda is the daughter of Ray Tennent and Thyra Gail (Shoemake). She was born June 23rd, 1962, in Osceola, Arkansas. Glenn and Tanda

Our Featured Family

Mary Katherine (Yankle) Young is the oldest of three children born to Daniel Richard Yankle and Helene (Cunningham). She was born Feb. 17th, 1959 at Hamilton A.F.B., California. She moved about the country with her parents as her father completed a career in the U.S. Air Force, finally settling in Apple Valley, California in 1974.

Danny Yankle was a man who loved to travel, and at one point arranged to take his whole family on a vacation to Wake Island, in the middle of the pacific. While Danny was scuba diving, the rest of the children snorkeled in the crystal-clear lagoon. On another vacation, they went to Volcanoes National park on the big island of Hawaii, watching an eruption of Kilauea Iki. Their home movies show bubbles of lava bursting on screen. Several years after graduating from college, Mary met David Young, a handsome man who she decided to keep. They were married July 18th, 1987, in a ceremony held at Arrow Head, California. David Young owns his own company, David Young Flooring, Contractor, while Mary K. still works as a Dental Hygienist. They have 3 children. As of this writing, Tyler is 16 years old, Erin is 12, and Sydney, 8.

Tyler is a very artistic young man, having been encouraged by an art teacher at the local high school. He has made several paintings which are being submitted for competition at the County Fair in Apple Valley. He is also a BIG basketball enthusiast.

Erin is an all-A student at Apple Valley Middle School. She has developed a newfound interest in boys, but still loves to decorate the family home for family get-togethers at Easter and Christmas.

Sydney, also an all-A student, is the gardener of the family, and a budding athlete in her own right. She loves to play basketball with the family and on the Parks and Recreation Basketball team.
